“ I worked in downtown Mgtn at Hair Tech when I met Charles. I really liked him and was surprised that Loretta was a regular to a co-worker. As time went on, I was introduced to the girls. They were all wonderful, outgoing, friendly young ladies. Charlie was, maybe, Jr High age. One of their family traditions at Christmas was filling the stockings--she loved stuffing them as full as they could be for her parents. For a kid that age to openly talk about how much they love their parents, says a lot about how they were being raised. Charles and Loretta, as well as their daughters, were always such a pleasure to be around. I'm sure this is a really difficult time, surrendering such a wonderful guy to the Lord; but he'll be there in Heaven, right next to Jesus, waiting just for you.

Sincerely, Carol Miller

“ We found out that Charles was our milkman in Parkersburg before we moved to Preston county and But the Dairy Queen. I had Loretta for English in Mason town, and then top first grade when she did in Monia county, and then she became principal when my nieces were in Ridgedale school. I last saw Charles at the hair salon with Loretta. What a great guy he was and what good care he He took of Loretta. I am so sorry for the loss of Charles. Please accept my condolences.
