“ My wife and I knew Dora for years. She was a wonderful lady and will be missed. She and my wife volunteered at the Parish House for a long time. Our condolences to her family.

“ I spent many hours in the home of Dora and Mason. Dora was a wonderful person, and a great member of the community. I never heard her say a cross word about anyone. Those who knew Dora and her family were fortunate indeed. Heaven gained another angel and I know that Mason, Dora, Vicki, and Danny are rejoicing together once again. Thank you Dora for all the love you gave me.

“ Dora was a very special lady. A real lady. She was an inspiration to us all. No need to set up a committee to raise money - she would just DO it - hot dog sales or bake sales. Set-up or clean-up events? No problem. And even though she suffered many heartaches with the passing of family members, she still carried on. She was a fixture of our little community. We will miss her greatly! May the angels greet you with smiles! Love to the family, Michelle and Wayne Strader

“ Dora was one of those people who put words into action. The last to leave the steak dinner for the parsonage. The first to church. I don't believe I ever thought she had a bad quality. My first memory of her and Mason was riding to some 4-H event with Danny and Vickie in the back seat of a 60 something Corvair. She was always kind to me growing up and a true role model. Later in life we became friends. Just knowing she was in the world always made me feel better. She lived a life of service. God Bless her Grandsons and their families for honoring her wish to be home in Wilsontown. They were there for her. She was the last Wilson in Wilsontown. I will miss her soft voice and kind smile.
