“ There are countless words to describe my mamaw, her love, her acceptance of me, the real me. I will forever cherish the memories that God gave me with her. Laughter, tears, jokes, hugs, kisses, goodbyes, accomplishments; she shared them with me. I will forever be a better woman because of my mamaw, her prayers and her steadfast faith that she had in Jesus Christ, and her steadfast love that she had for me.

“ Doris was a light in my life from the first day we met. I am truly blessed to have known her and to have had the pleasure to spend time with her. We laughed together often. Many thanks to John and Sherry for introducing me to such a great Christian lady.

“ From the first day, I met Mrs. Beathe and Bill her husband I felt like they were the father and mother I never had. She is and always will be only fond memories for me. She remains beautiful, thoughtful, and loving to anyone she touched in her life. God has received an angel in heaven, we have enjoyed her while here on earth. What a blessing she has brought to all and especially me. I am a better man for knowing Doris Beathe. Robert (Bob) Kincaid

I fell on hard times a few years ago and she let me live with her. I am eternally grateful for her love and kindness. Words can never convey the love I have for her and the teachings and examples she set. She had dignity and taught me the value of self respect. I love you mamas now and forever.

As a young boy growing up in West Virginia there were three women who had a strong influence in my development, my mother, grandmother and my Aunt Doris Ann. The love and guidance she had for me made me the man I am today. She will forever be in my heart until the day I die and can reunite with her in heaven.
