“ Growing up, you were always my favorite person. I could always run to you with anything and did many times. You always told me i was special and would do great things in life. You were there when i was struggling with suicidal thoughts when i was a little girl of 12 and reminded me God would always love me. Because of you, I grew up knowing God. I remember singing with you throughout all of my childhood and will forever cherish every memory i have with you. I’m sorry circumstances outside of our control prevented me from seeing you again. Your great grandchildren would of adored you just as i always did. I hope Heaven is beautiful, Grandpa. I have always loved you.

“ The last time I saw Uncle Doyle and Aunt Beulah, he told me he would know me anywhere. He had that same amazing smile and voice I remember from childhood. Although your soul is at Rest, your memories will forever remain. Until we meet again, I love forever. Fly high Uncle Doyle, your niece Dawna Fox-Twyman

I'll always remember Doyle and my Mom laughing at me trying to catch a banty rooster. With the two of them laughing it was hard to pay attention to a rooster that wanted to fight. Condolences to the family.
