“ Red and family,
I was sorry to hear of Marty's passing. I enjoyed working with Marty at the Acme bookstore while I was going to college. She and my sister Lila See were friends when they both worked at the bookstore. I have many fond memories of her. Lila and I send our condolences to you and the family..

“ Runt and Family - So sorry for you loss. So sorry that I cannot be there in person in this time of grief but I am there in spirit. Cannot forget all those great times at The Acme Book Store with Mom, Marty and everyone else that worked there. Sure do miss those times so far ago and wish we could have them back. God bless you and just remember that she may be gone in body but her spirit will be with you forever. Frank Karickhoff
