“ Dear Joe, Diane and family, Pat and I were saddened upon reading of the death of our neighbor Joe. We had many great conversations over the years and we enjoyed his company whether it be stopping to talk or just a friendly wave. We had some interesting talks regarding trying to keep our mowers running. Don't think we ever solved anything?
Thoughts and prayers coming your way with sincere condolences.

“ My favorite memories of dear, sweet Joe are of him enjoying going to Weston, specifically to Kathy's Riverside Restaurant in Weston where he used to love to take Mrs. Butcher. He also loved to go to Pizza Hut and talk about how the Pirates were doing or catch a Steelers game. He loved baking a cake, asking everyone he loved, "if they needed anything" and telling his loved ones that he loved them. He loved the joys of his retired life such as getting the paper and a hot dog down the street and growing tomatoes from seed in his kitchen window. He was such a sweet and dear soul. Love from the Wong Family to the Butcher Family at this time.
