

Larry G. Strader

May 27, 1950 - October 20, 2015

Larry G. Strader, age 65, of 18950 Rt. 20 S. Rd., Kanawha Head, WV, died Tuesday, October 20, 2015, at his home. He was born on May 27, 1950, in Buckhannon, a son of the late Raymond Ralph and Mabel Gertrude McKisic Strader. On June 30, 1995, he was united in marriage to Judith A. Talbott, who survives. Also surviving are one daughter Kimberly and husband Kent Price of Morehead, KY; two stepchildren: Shawna R. Brown of Buckhannon and Delmas Steve Brown, II of Kanawha Head; four grandchildren: Elizabeth and Laura Price and Kailea and Darian Brown; a double first cousin who was like a brother Jim Strader and wife Sharon; sister-in-law Ginger K. Strader of Frenchton; and two nieces: Charlene Strader of Buckhannon and Joy Strader Mealey of Crawford. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one brother Merl Strader and one nephew Roger W. Strader.

Mr. Strader was retired from driving truck, which he truly enjoyed. He also enjoyed and took pride in mowing grass and “weed-whipping”. He frequently visited antique car and truck shows with his wife in the surrounding area, as well as in Louisville, KY.

In accordance with the wishes of Mr. Strader, the body was donated to the Human Gift Registry of the West Virginia University School of Medicine for the advancement of the health sciences.

The family will receive friends at the Heavner and Cutright Funeral Chapel on Sunday, October 25, 2015, from 12-2:00 PM, with a Memorial Service beginning at 2:00 PM, with Pastor David Jessie officiating. Following the services, a dinner will be provided for family and friends at the Rock Cave Fire Department. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of Larry to the West Virginia University School of Medicine Human Gift Registry, 4052 Health Sciences Center North, Morgantown, WV 26506.

“ Larry was a guy, who cared about all. Always a smile and a word, who made my sister, Judith very happy. He loved her family, who became his also. This world has lose a very special person, but our loss is Heaven gain.
His pain is over, and he is now at rest... Safe with the Lord, as the Bible says. Judith, as your heart is breaking, remember the Lord near and He will give you rest and peace. To his "Kids" remember he loved each one of you, in his LOVING way.... God bless you all..
