“ Mom and I were very sorry to hear about Belle. We saw her last year at her sister's yard sale on Cow Run and she told us about her cancer and how she had had a treatment the day before. She was so positive she was going to beat it this time. I wish she had. She was very friendly and nice to talk too. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time.

To Jimmy and the girls, we know that this is such a painful time. But hope you can find peace knowing that Belle, is in peace, and no pain now. She was such a strong person. I always looked up to Belle, she taught me how to sew, and I had such a good time working with her, only wish that we, had more time to share as friends. Our lives are to busy and short. I just saw her at Wal Mart and we exchange our hugs. She had a wonderful personality and saw good in everyone. She was a special lady. Rest in peace Belle, you are loved by many.

The first time I met Jimmy and Belle was 5 yrs ago. Off all the cogars I met, Jimmy and Belle made me feel comfortable. Belle was never sitting still and when my wifes Mother died in December Belle showed up not feeling her best. She is in heaven now with my wifes mother (Joyce Cogar). you could see how much Jimmy loved Belle. My prayers are to Jimmy and the children at this very difficult time. Jim--(Inwood, WV)
