“ Jess&Jason, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. My heart breaks for you as I do understand the hurt that you're feeling. I think mothers are Gods special angels her on earth. As you begin each day be sure to thank God for the time that you did have with her. I know how proud your mother was of her children and grandchildren. Now is your chance to honor her, keep her memory alive by continually sharing memories of her with your children. In the coming days as you gather with family and friends to celebrate her life please know that this isn't the end of your mothers story, its only just begun for her. Although I do know it is hard right now there is peace in knowing that Heaven is promised to all of us if only we believe and ask Jesus into our hearts. It gave me great joy in learning that your mother had prepared for the day that God would call her home. God will use this for good, trust Him. Life on earth is brief, don't take one second for granite. I pray you will find strength in knowing that this isn't good bye....Its just... see ya soon mom. Keeping you in my prayers and close at heart during this most difficult time.
