“ It has been so many years since I have seen her, but I think of her often. She was like a second Mom to me in my youth and teenage years. She was a great person and I am so sorry she has left us. The world is a lesser place without her in it.

“ My mom is gone from Earth now, but never will I forget the memories that I have of her and family through the years of my life! For we know that our life is actually only short, as a vapor. For we know why we are actually here. For our lives parallel Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. We are to carry that same cross Jesus did. If you can, you will be rewarded. We can and are to expect that reward for Jesus tells us that in his word. The most beautiful thing is that I seen Jesus at work in my mom's last days on earth. How beautiful to know what he has done and what he is doing. Mom is smiling down on us, and will be there waiting. Hope I can finish that same race, and finish as she did, for to Finish with our Lord is our purpose. Love you always mom.

“ June was my sister. I can remember when I was a little girl, Margaret, June, Jenefer and myself all had the task of washing and drying the dishes after dinner. Margaret, who worked in a record shop always purchased the latest singing books (they were called songsters) and records. We always had fun singing whilst we worked. I used to love watching June and Margaret get ready on a Saturday evening to go dancing. I was so envious of their beautiful gowns and how beautiful they looked and of course I was too young to go with them. I also remember that June had saved one of her party dresses from when she was 14 and I was over the moon when this was passed onto me. It was blue with coloured stars all over it. I remember that June made a trip back to Adelaide from the USA to catch up with family and friends and that would have just over 40 years ago. Kym & I caught up with June and family almost 20 years ago at thanks giving and then Theo and I saw her and part of the family almost 6 years ago at Julie's. It was just like we had seen each other last week. We talked and talked and revisited our memories of days gone by. It was unfortunate that we lost touch, due to several of us moving and emails and phone numbers being changed. I had a feeling several weeks ago that I should try and get in touch again and I am sad that this was not possible and so therefore missed out speaking to my beautiful sister one last time. Love you big sister, you will always be in my heart. Joy xxxxx

“ June and I were mothers-in-law in common and in the 20 years we knew each other and shared grandchildren she and I always remained friends also. I admired June's love of pretty things from flowers to pretty clothes. She was an elegant woman. I will miss her Australian accent, it was so beautiful. June shared many meals at my table and enjoyed tea with biscuits and honey. I will miss you June. Lois

“ My mother was a wonderful woman. I will miss her laugh, the way she smelled, the way she loved her wild flowers, the way she called everyone "lovey" or "dahling", her sense of humor, her strength as she put her children before herself right up until her last breath. The way she loved the beach and how it smelled, staying up all hours and watching Golden Girls and cracking up. She carried herself with class and was the strongest woman I have ever met. I am so proud of you Mom! I'll see you again soon.
