

Vicky Darlene Hinchman

February 25, 1958 - February 13, 2020

Vicky Darlene Hinchman, age 61, of Randolph Street, Buckhannon, died Thursday, February 13, 2020, at her home. She was born on February 25, 1958, a daughter of the late Thomas J. Hayes and Beth Laverne Curtis Hayes, who survives. On July 22, 1973, she was united in marriage to Robert (Bob) Hinchman, who survives. In addition to her mother and husband, she is also survived by two daughters: Bobby and husband Russell Bennett of Horner and Beth and husband Bill Huddleston of French Creek; two grandchildren: Erica Betler and fiancé Zack Bennett of Buckhannon and Hunter Huddleston of Morgantown; three great grandchildren: Kenley and Hudson Chidester and Rylan Bennett, all of Buckhannon; and four-legged friends: cat Tucker and dog Spanky. In addition to her father, she was also preceded in death by a special maternal grandmother Mildred Curtis.

Vicky was a homemaker and a member of the South Buckhannon Mission Church. She was an avid crafter and had worked as an in-home caregiver with the Senior Center—a job she thoroughly enjoyed. Vicky was loved by many and her family, friends, and neighbors brought her true joy in life, especially caring for her three great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held at 1:00 PM, on Saturday, February 15, 2020, at the Hampton Cemetery with Pastor Ed Lowther officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations of blankets may be made to the mothers and infants at Mon General Hospital in her memory.

“ MY HEART IS BREAKING FOR THE FAMILY, SO UNBELIEVABLE. I WAS AT HER HOUSE IN NOV., TO PICK UP MY DONATION FOR MY BIRTHDAY TO GIVE TO THE PARISH HOUSE FOR CHRISTMAS MEALS. THE REQUEST WAS A BOX OF 30 ITEMS ON A LIST I GAVE OUT . I CAN TELL TOY VICKY WENT WAY OVER THE 30 ITEMS I REQUESTED, BUT THAT WAS JUST HER!! VICKY AND I HAVE BEEN FRIENDS FOR MANY MANY YEARS. SHE ALWAYS HAD A SMILE AND HUG FOR ME AS I DID HER.I PURCHASED MANY MANY PEPPERS FROM HER OVER THE YEARS TO CAN AND HER AND BOB ALWAYS HAD THE BEST. MY SWEET FRIEND UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN , REMEMBER HOW MUCH WERE YOU/ARE LOVED BY SO MANY NOT JUST YOUR FAMILY.I KNOW YOU REMEMBER HOW WE USE TO LAUGH ABOUT PEOPLE TEASING US ABOUT OUR RED-HAIR AND WHO KNEW... THERE SURE WAS A LOT OF REDHEADS SHOWING UP FAST. WELL, YOU ARE A TRUE REDHEAD OR A WANNA BE.LOVE AND WILL MISS YOU VICKY.

“ I am so heart broken over the passing of Vicki...Actually I am shocked as I had just seen her not too long ago and she greeted me with the biggest hug.. that I will never forget. Such a kind, sweet personality she took with her every where she went. She always took the time to chat no matter what. My heartfelt sympathy and prayers are with each of you as you go through such a difficult time. God has other plans for Vicki as he needed such a beautiful soul for his upcoming gardens...She will be truly missed by all who knew her.

I just learned of Vickies passing and I'm heartbroken. We were childhood friends from just little girls and through the years would run and hug each other. I'm so sad, but nothing I'm sure compared to the heartbreak of her beautiful mother and family. I spent many sleep overs and meals at Vickie's house as kids. The world is a little dimmer today for me. I loved this lady. One fine lady.
