“ Dear Family,

Bill was a kind and gentle soul who made the world a better place. We had so much fun when he was the only licensed driver in the group. Big Brother never complained about taking us underclassmen anywhere. I smile when I remember our great cultural debate and compromise about who wanted to see "Alice's Restaurant" or "Easy Rider." We never thought it strange to be wearing coats while eating Dairy Queen custard.

May you have peace through the Prince of Peace in this difficult season of separation. Hugging you with my prayers,
